

The UNWTO (United Nations World Tourism Organisation), El Legado Andalusi (Spain) and the Department of Antiquities of Jordan, confirmed their support to the VI International Conference on Sciences and Technology in Archaeology and Conservation due in Rome 7-11 December 2008. The VI Conference, organised by WATCH, will focus on Cultural Heritage Documentation. A high profile seminar will be organised within the same framework that will be attended by a restricted number of military and professionals dealing with Cultural Heritage documentation during armed conflicts.
